Hi, this is me again! You know me – I am Jennifer. I want to tell you that in New York it's summer now and it's superb superb hot! There are a lot of buildings and the streets are extremely warm. What surprises me it that yesterday I saw a dog in shoes! Haha I know that we know Shrek and there was a cat in shoes but it is a fairytale... but a dog! What's more! I saw even more dogs in shoes today! My neighbor told me it's OK and even necessary to put shoes on to your dog because the asphalt or paving bricks are like frying pan – unbelievably hot and a dog can burn himself so these shoes can protect them. I didn't know about it so now I'm not gonna laugh I will clap my hands to show I am grateful that people protect their dogs from the heat. I like summer weather but not when it's so so hot.
